ORDERS

In this section where order numbers are evaluated as order IDs, you can see orders such as when the orders were received, by whom they were received, from whom they were received, by which user – on which date they were received & intervene the orders in first-hand. You can cancel orders and review their current status. This section is everything about the created order. Order numbers should be searched in the orders section.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

This is the section with automated services that are requested to be sent to a specific profile - at specific intervals. You can make a search by subscription numbers. This is the section where the subscription numbers of the customers, the number of orders they have created, the intervals at which they want them to arrive are recorded. The customers can stop and activate their subscription themselves. Subscriptions continue as long as there is balance in the accounts.
